The image shows the main building of the College of Europe in Natolin, Poland. The building is a neoclassical structure with a prominent circular portico supported by six white columns. Above the columns is a decorative frieze and a large dome with a light blue patina. The building is surrounded by lush green trees and a well-maintained lawn. In the foreground, there is a large stone sphinx statue on a pedestal, and some pink flowers are visible in the bottom left corner. A red banner with white text is overlaid across the middle of the image.

A scenic view of a historic campus. In the foreground, a stone bridge crosses a body of water. To the left, a building with a steep gable roof and exposed wooden beams is partially visible. In the center and right, a large, two-story white building with a pedimented roof and arched windows stands prominently. The background is filled with lush green trees, and a large, mature tree is on the right side of the frame.
