

1st Symposium on the Effects of Sustainability and Socially Responsible Practices on Society

28th November; 2-6 PM
Location: CATÓLICA-LISBON

In this symposium we bring together worldwide institutions, companies, and academics with the purpose of better understanding what is done in terms of corporate social responsibility practices and its implications for society.

Free entrance.

Register here: bit.ly/36DgztD

Program

2pm-2.05pm — Welcome remarks from the Symposium Chair, Rita Coelho do Vale

3.45pm-4.00pm — Q&A

2.05pm-2.15pm — A message from the Dean of CATÓLICA-LISBON, Filipe Santos

4.00pm-4.30pm — Coffee Break

2.15pm-2.45pm — Catarina Albuquerque, CEO of UN' Sanitation and Water for All

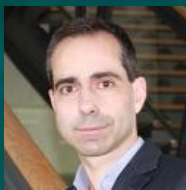

4.30pm-5.00pm — Rita Monteiro, Head of the Corporate Volunteer Program at EDP — Energias de Portugal

2.45pm-3.15pm — Teresa Pina, Head of the Education Department at Oceanário de Lisboa

5.00pm-5.30pm — Fábria Ranzani, Director of Brand Development at Pingo Doce

3.15pm-3.45pm — Nuno Moreira da Cruz, Director of the Center for Responsible Business and Leadership

5.30pm-6pm — Closing remarks

Filipe Santos
CATÓLICA-LISBON

Catarina Albuquerque
UN' Sanitation and Water for All

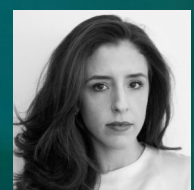

Teresa Pina
Oceanário de Lisboa

Nuno Moreira da Cruz
Center for Responsible Business & Leadership

Rita Monteiro
EDP—Energias de Portugal

Fábria Ranzani
Pingo Doce

This symposium is organized within the FCT Project "Well-Being & Sustainability: The spillover effect of social corporate responsibility practices on consumers' adoption of sustainable behaviors and on the consumption of sustainable products".

Find out more: <https://www.clsbe.lisboa.ucp.pt/sustainability-and-consumer-well-being-project>