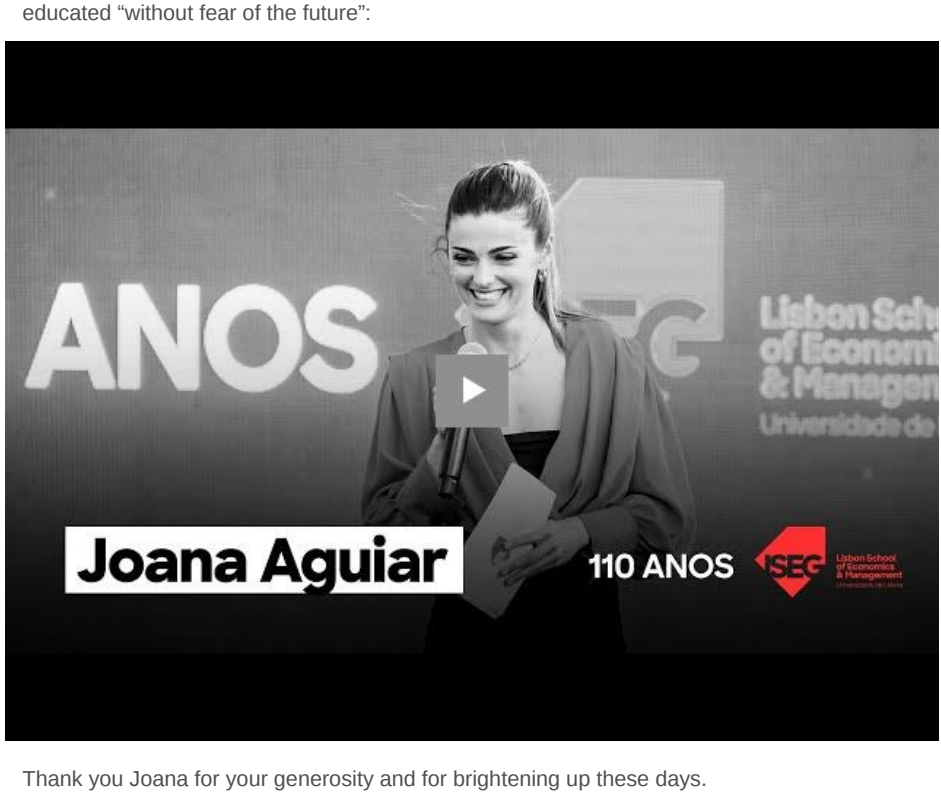
Alumni with extraordinary talent

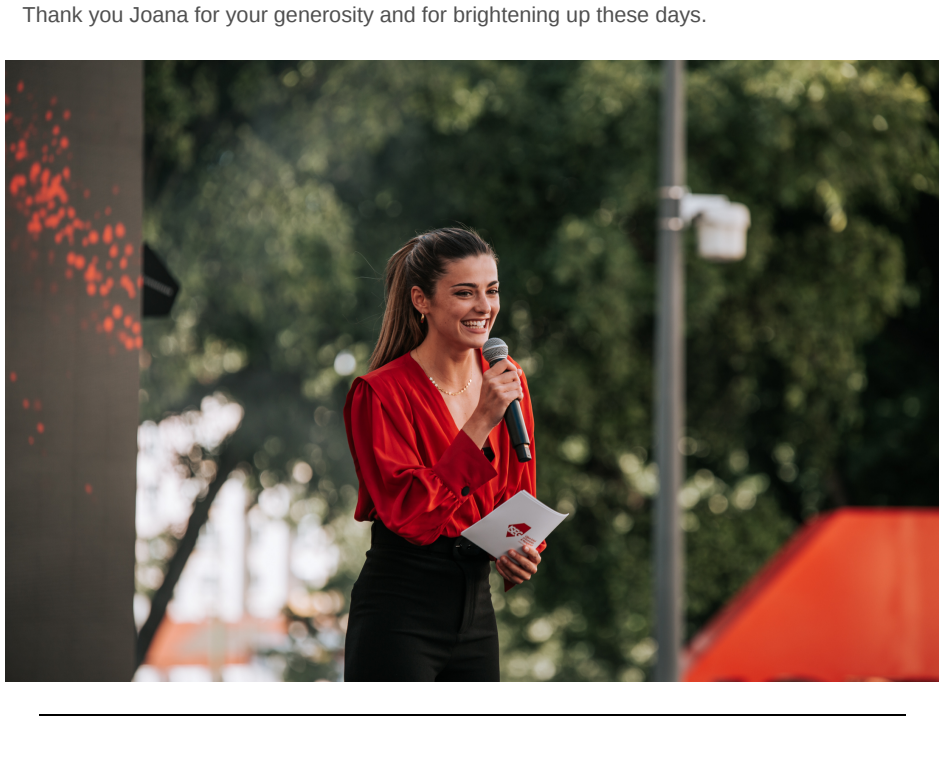
ISEG educates economists and managers – who are also educated as people. All different, all equal …. and they always come back.

Joana Aguiar, the actress of the moment

Recently graduated in Management from ISEG, Joana Aguiar returned to share her experience of studying in a space "of freedom", where economists and managers are educated "without fear of the future":



Thank you Joana for your generosity and for brightening up these days.



Carlos "Kajó" Soares, between Banking and Music

With a degree and MBA from ISEG, Carlos Soares divides his time between a passion for banking and a passion for music. He came back to let us share in this journey. Thank you Carlos!
