

Master's in Applied Econometrics and Forecasting

Lisbon School of Economics & Management
Universidade de Lisboa

Graduate Employability Survey 2026 | Graduates from 2021/2023 | Survey Response Rate: 32%

What are our graduates doing?

100% of our graduates are currently employed

38% are working abroad

50% are working in roles aligned with their field of study

Salary earned by our graduates in their first job after graduation:

4349€ 50% Average salary increase

Average gross monthly salary (Euros) – First job after graduation (including additional compensation)

Waiting time to obtain the first job after graduation

50%

during master's studies

100%

within 12 months

Improvements the degree brought to your professional activity

67%

Skills/knowledge useful for professional performance

50%

Career progression

33%

Level of qualifications most appropriate to the role

Where are our graduates?

(some of the main employers)

Acasus

Banco de Cabo Verde

Deloitte.

Millennium
bcp